We, the students of Sikeston High School, are very proud of our community. We have watched her grow with us. Some of us have lived all our lives in Sikeston, others only a few years or months. But no matter if you were born and bred here or not, it is still home.

Sikeston has events, such as the Jaycee Bootheel Rodeo and Cotton Carnival, that attract people from out of town and offer fun for everyone. Recently, she also added the new power plant to her list of achievements.

Sikeston has many things to offer her inhabitants. There are many shopping facilities, theatres, parks, restaurants, and other features that give Sikeston a unique personality.

As we go through our three years of high school, growing and maturing, we take of the many things our community has to offer us. It is our hope that with this yearbook we can give a little back.

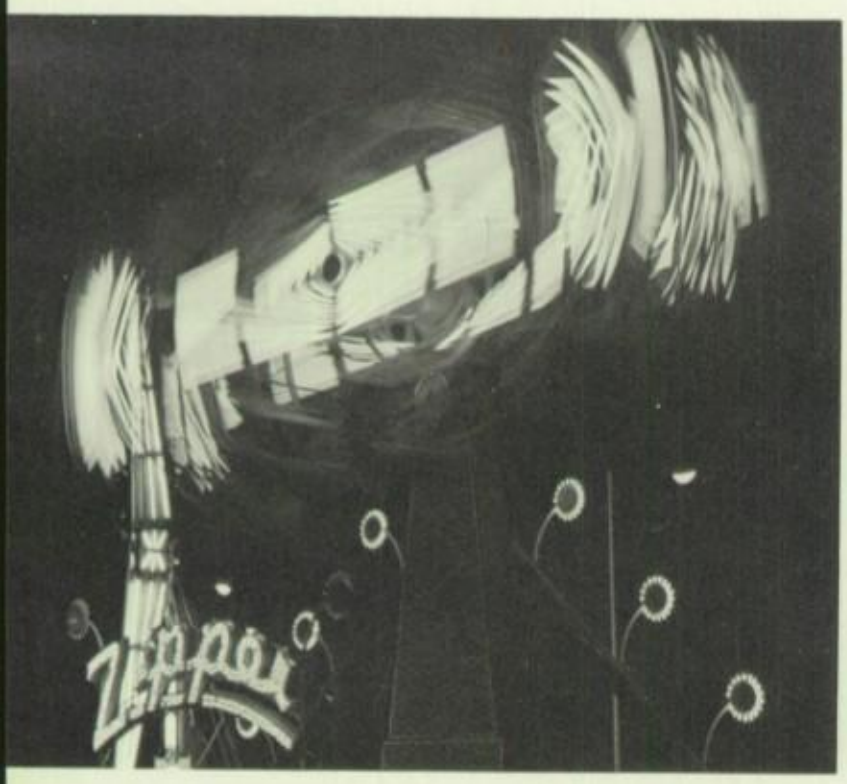
Sikeston's

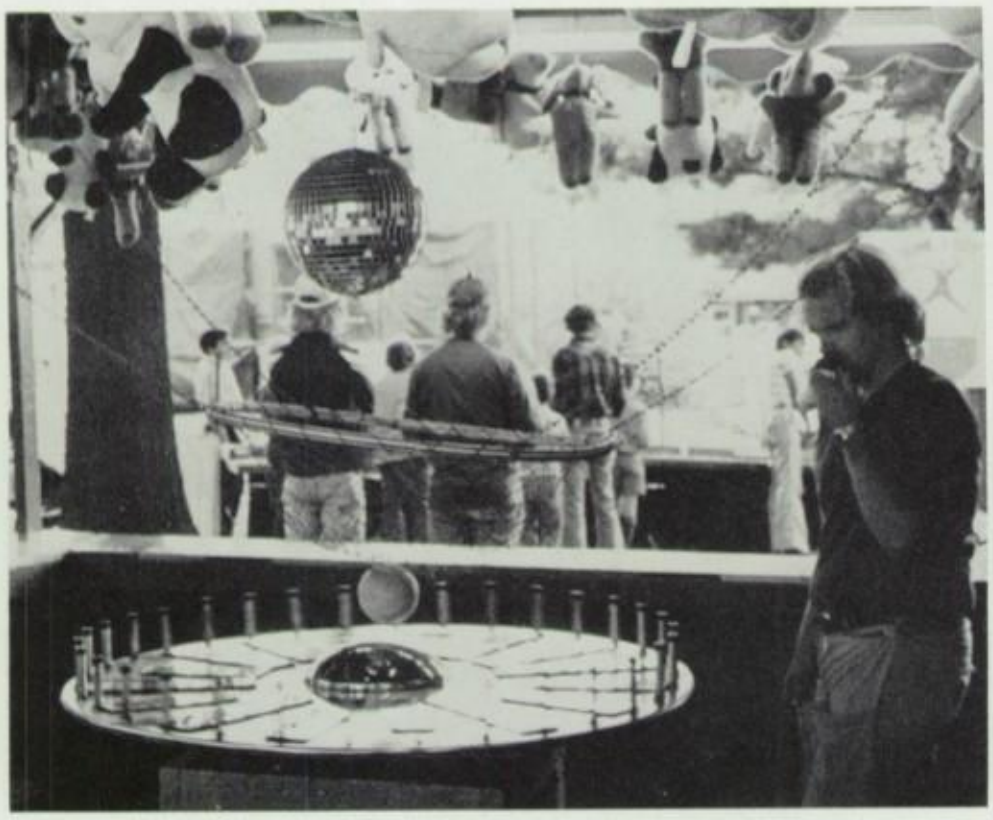
Every year there are two events held in Sikeston that attract people from all over the area. They are the Jaycee Bootheel Rodeo and the Cotton Carnival.

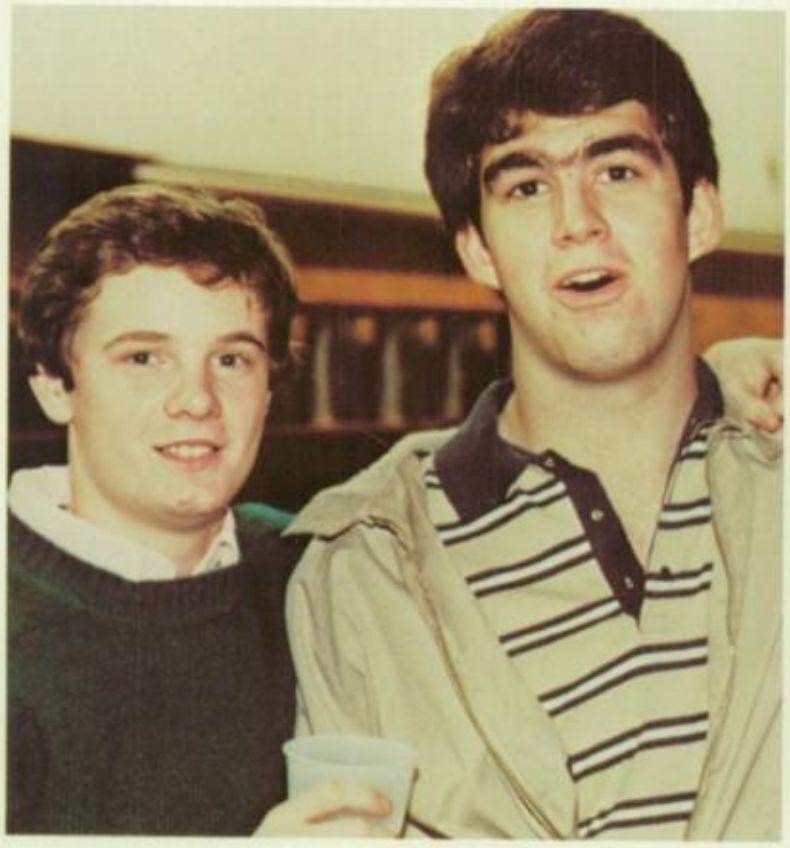
To celebrate the cotton harvest the Cotton Carnival is held every year near the end of September. It goes on for six days with something for everybody. It is highlighted by contests such as Miss Sikeston and Miss Cotton Carnival, which go on throughout the week. To top off the week of fun, the Cotton Carnival Parade is held on the last day of the carnival.

Sikeston is very proud of its rodeo. It is four nights of calf-roping, bull-riding, entertainingly good fun! Along with the cowboys that come to participate in the rodeo, there are top-name entertainers who provide good country music. For a week in August it's time to get out your cowboy boots and hats. It's rodeo time!



Rodeo and Cotton Carnival





Friends

Secrets kept, . . . long conversations on the phone . . . Saturday nights "out on the town" . . . dreams shared . . . quiet moments . . . good times, bad times . . . laughter and smiles . . . tears . . . understanding . . . patience . . . love . . .

eating lunch together . . . cheering at football games . . . doing homework together . . . acting crazy . . . caring . . . living . . . going separate ways but never forgetting . . . a true friendship is hard to find and worth its weight in gold.

The Red and Black

There's a school in south Missouri
That is known throughout the state
She's a school of highest credit;
None other half so great.
We shall never cease to love her
Nor honor shall she lack;
As we go to dear ole Sikeston
'Neath the Red and the Black.

Through the four long years of high school
'midst the scenes we love so well;
While the mystic charms of knowledge
We vainly seek to spell;
Or we win athletic victories
On football field or track,
As we go to dear ole Sikeston
'Neath the Red and the Black.

Now in football she's a leader
Her boys are quick enough;
She has shown the teams of Charleston
And also Poplar Bluff;
She's the best team in Missouri
Nor rooters shall she lack
As we go to dear old Sikeston
'Neath the Red and the Black.

Thespian Troupe #3244 & SHS Drama Club

Act well your part

There all the honor lies

The 1982-83 drama club and Thespian troupe was a very active group. They produced the "Diary of Anne Frank" as their fall play and "Oklahoma!" as their spring play. Musicals are much harder than an average play, but the drama club worked very hard to make both plays successful. Both plays were successful with "Oklahoma!" selling out the last two nights of its performance.

The best actress award for "The Diary of Anne Frank" went to Cathy Dollar, best actor to Chip Grant, and best stage crew member to Steven Cecil. The best actress award for "Oklahoma!" went to Elizabeth Malcom, best actor to Steve Chessor, and best stage crew member to Steven Cecil. The best Thespian-of-the-year award went to Steven Cecil.

Speech and Debate has building year

The 1982-83 Speech and Debate Team, coached by Mr. Harold Norton, has had an outstanding year. This year's team was the first from Sikeston High School to participate in the Southeast Missouri District Speech Contest. The team members were strong in determination going into the contest. The competition was held on Friday, March 18, and Saturday, March 19. Seniors Frank Parrish and Robert Sampson entered in cross-examination debate, in which they debated in four rounds. Sophomore Lora Carlisle entered the poetry reading category, while Robert Sampson double entered and presented his prose reading in two rounds. Wendell Sanders, another senior, received a superior certificate for his entry in extemporaneous speaking. A superior certificate was also awarded to sophomore Jacqui Ford for her dramatic interpretation entry. The district competition was a new experience for these members, but they represented SHS very well. Congratulations are extended to Mr. Norton and all of the members of the Speech and Debate Team for the growth and success of this year's squad!

The poster and money contests went on all week. Seniors came on strong about midweek with posters by the dozens. Money was collected mainly during the lunch shifts. Chris Steward could be heard with a plea of "give me all your change!" almost daily on 2nd lunch shift.

The game was to be played against a long-time rival, Dexter High School. The Bearcats were out for revenge and a big victory, but the Bulldogs were not about to let them have it.

SHS Bulldog Marching Band

The Sikeston High School Marching Band had an outstanding year. Despite many setbacks, the band did an excellent job. Much of their success should be credited to their outstanding director, Mr. Pat Curry. Credit is also given to Miss Julie Norton, senior and Miss Missy Matthews, junior, who are this year's drum majorettes.

Since the seniors were not announced at the last home football game because of audio troubles, they will be listed now: Laurie Adams, Rob Aldrich, Marty Allen, Sara Barks, Betsy Bess, Kelly Bloemer, Julie Carlisle, Candy Clark, Steve Costin, Denise Dowling, Val Ebersole, Lora Freeman, Lori Freeman, Tracey Gilmore, Chip Grant, David Hanna, Craig Harlan, Tina Hines, (con't on next page)

Mark Jobe, Susan Kordahl, Julie Norton, Missy Manning, April Payne, D'Ann Riggs, Tom Rowell, Brenda Rucker, and Laura Southern.

A special thanks goes to Mr. Curry and all the band members for a super year.

1982-83 Drum Majorettes

Senior Julie Norton and Junior Missy Matthews led the Marching Bulldogs on the field, in parades, and in the annual marching concert this year. The two drum majorettes worked very hard throughout marching season, helping the band prepare for their performances and working with Mr. Curry perfecting each drill and song. Julie and Missy deserve a great deal of praise and credit for all their hard work and help with the band this year.

Sing Along with Mr. Beaver

Choir III

One of the biggest traditions at SHS is the Christmas Choir Concert. The choirs also give a Fall, Easter, and Spring Concert too. These concerts are a big part of the lives of about 350 SHS students that make up the choirs.

Pictured to the right is the Modern Chorale. The Chorale is the epitomy of the choirs. The picture at the top is of Choir III, and the picture at the bottom is of Choir VII.

Remembering Them

As days go by, whether you're a sophomore, junior, or senior, you remember the fun you had at high school. A part of that memory is the teachers. For example: the picture in the upper left corner might bring back to mind a battle between two people, Mr. Mosley and Mr. Huff. A perfect caption for this picture might read, "The new head librarian."

Since we're talking about C-Building, the upper right corner picture brings back a different memory. A memory of a man of courage and strength. We love you Mr. Clayton. The picture to your direct right is of a woman who also is of great courage. What else could you say about Mrs. Schuerenberg. The next picture to your right is Miss Yount. What a lovely lady!

Everyone remembers Mr. Huff, as you look at the next picture, Mr. Mosley's opponent. The next lady is Mrs. Burge. The Red Peppers should remember her with great "love"!

The students of SHS would like to give all the teachers of SHS a special thanks for making our years here a great success!

Girls' Cross Country

The girls' cross country team. Front row from left to right: Michele Montgomery, and Pam Mullins. Back row from left to right: Chantal Sparks, Melinda Dame, and Rebecca Sanders.

This year the cross country team had an inconsistent season. They were handicapped due to the lack of another runner, therefore, the girls usually had to run individually instead of as a team. Next year the team will have experience as well as depth as all five members are returning.

Mark Deuster and Clinton Wright both had excellent seasons and represented Sikeston very well in the State Meet. Overall the team had a very good season and was well balanced. They placed very high in some tough St. Louis meets also.

The 1982-83 football team entered their practices with hopes for a state Championship, and by the end of the season, they had only lost two games and had qualified for the State Playoffs for the second time in three seasons. The Bulldogs played a tough Parkway South team in the opening round and lost a heart-breaker 3-0. The Dogs had an excellent season this year, and with many of the starters returning next year, the proud tradition of Sikeston football should continue.

The young team struggled through a season in which they only saw one win all season. The team boasts some young raw talent which she hopes will come together next year.

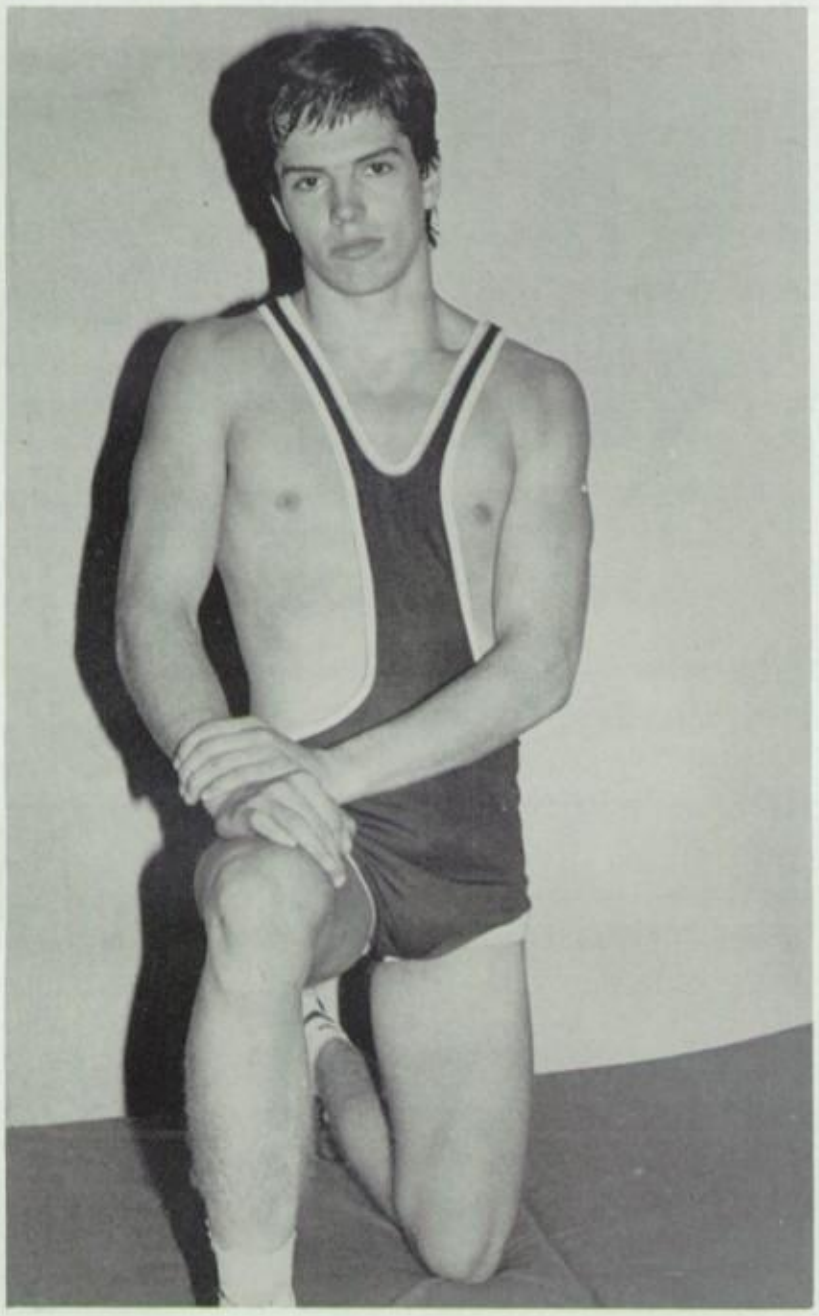
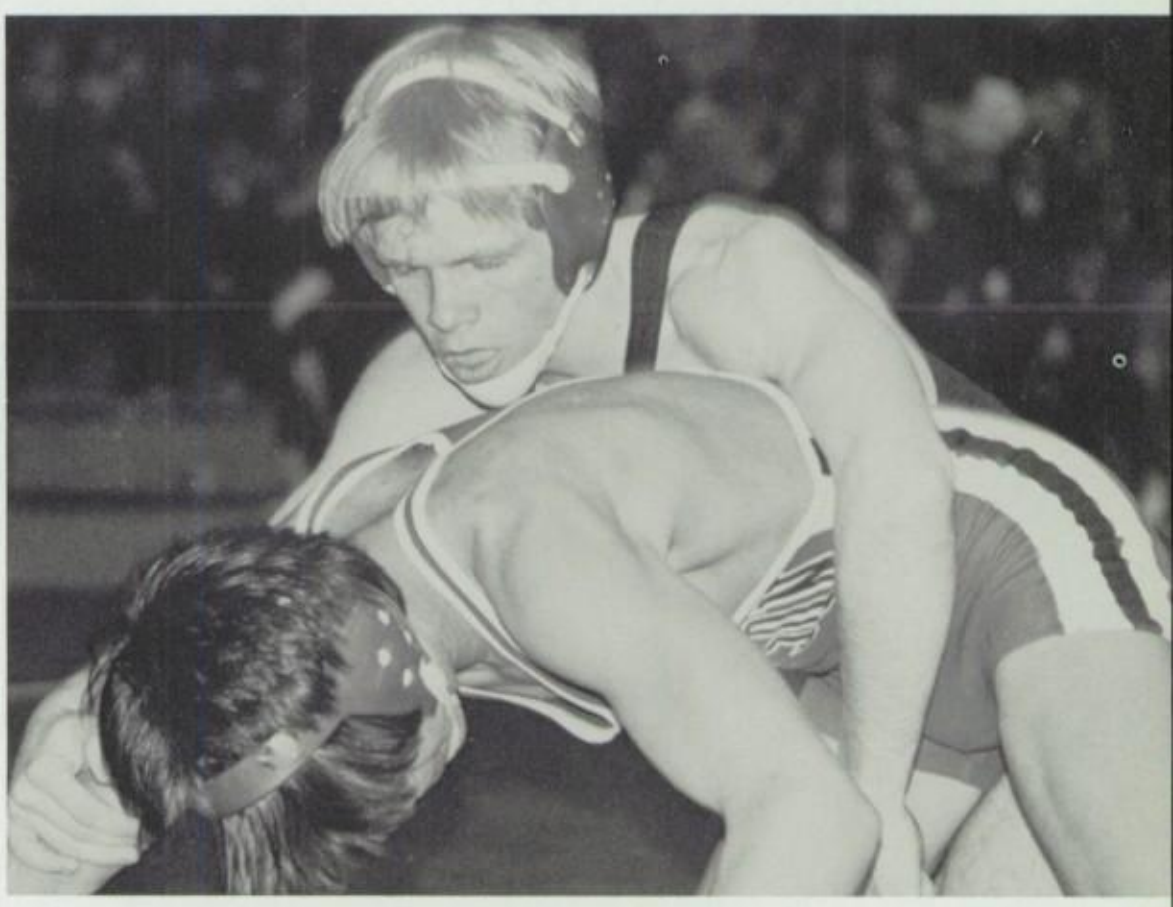
The Bulldog wrestling squad had the best season it has ever had in 1983. The squad won the prestigious Tiger Classic, the Poplar Bluff tournament, and the Conference Tournament. They took second at the Jackson and Pacific Quads. They had an undefeated season in dual meets until the final meet with the Jackson Indians, which they lost by three points.

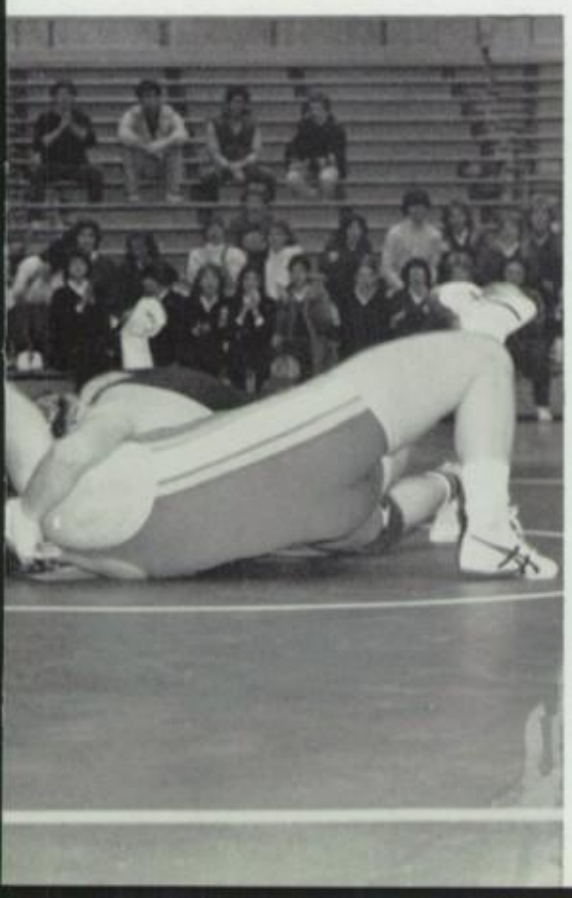
The Dogs had five wrestlers qualify for the State Tournament, and took eighth place as a team. They can be very proud what they accomplished in 1983.

Five qualify for State

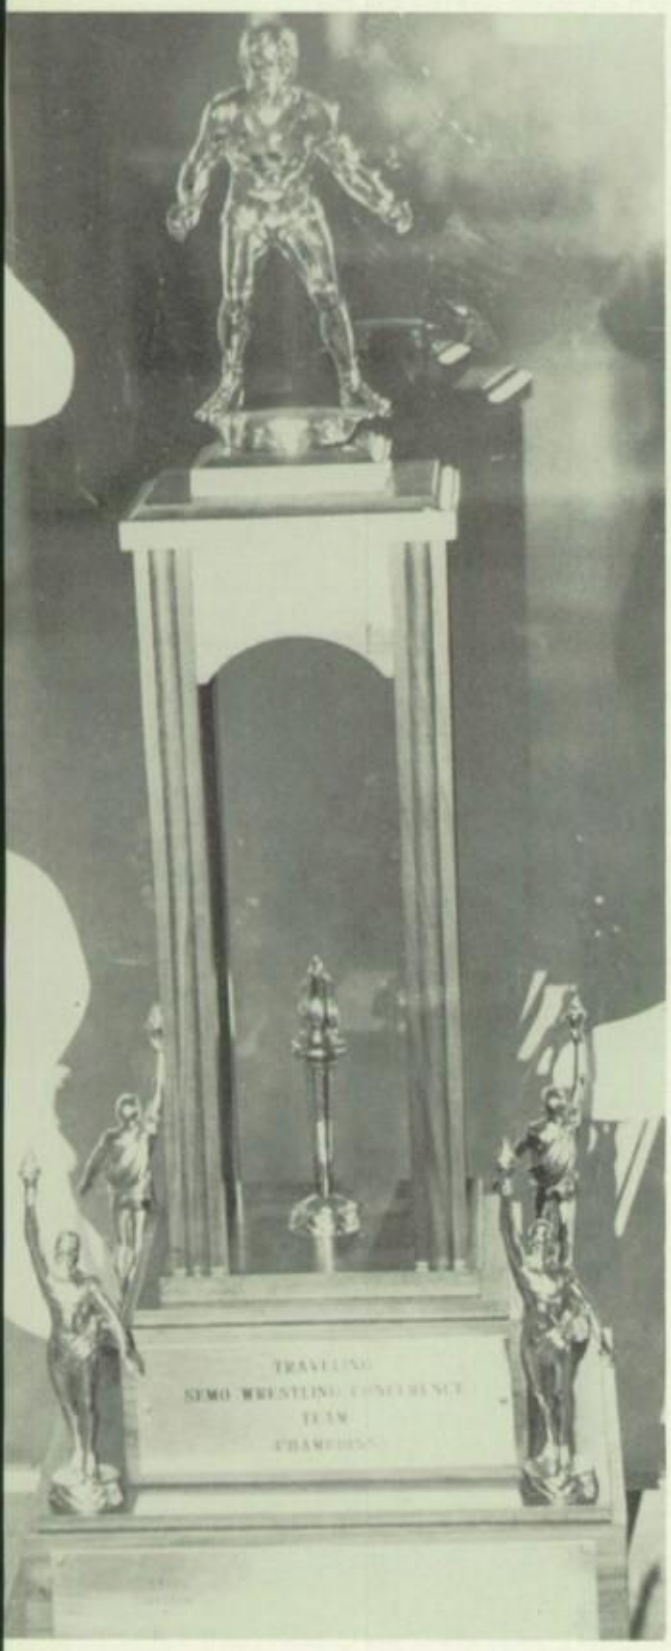


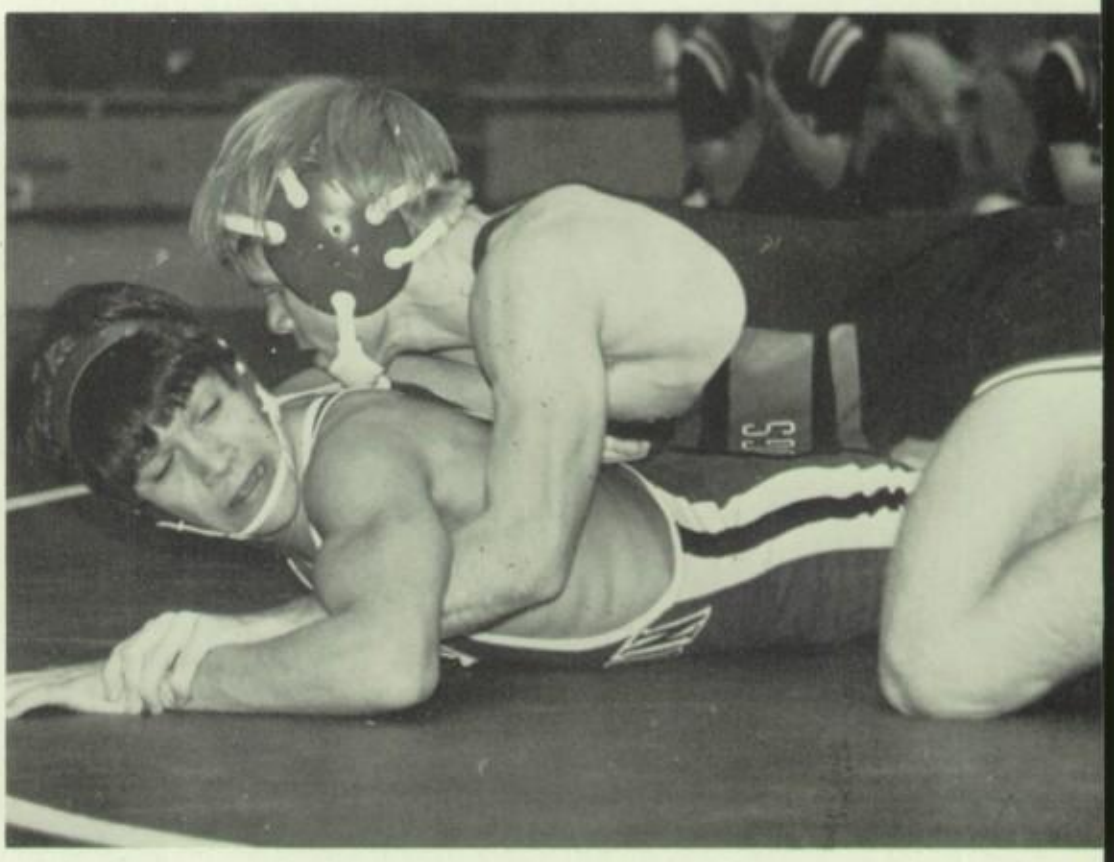
Tim Thomure was the only State Champion to come from Sikeston.





Dogs win conference





The Dogs walked away with a Conference Championship in 1983. That feat had eluded them for many years. This year was also the first year for the Traveling Trophy, which will go to the winner of Conference each season.

Athletic awards

The first athletic award to be presented at the awards assembly was the J. Herschel Tyer Memorial Football Scholarship Award. Mr. Tyer was a strong supporter of the Sikeston football team for many years. 1982-83 Growler Staff

Working as editors for the 1982-83 Growler has been a tremendous experience for both of us. We have been able to see and do things that we might, otherwise, never have been able to see and do.

In the pages of this yearbook, we have tried to capture scenes of both Sikeston the community and Sikeston the school. We also used both the new Bowzer and the old Bowzer to show that Sikeston is changing and growing but still remembering old friends.

There are so many people to whom we owe a great big thanks. The completion of this book would not have been possible without everyone's pulling together. To make sure we kept pulling together, we had Mrs. Watson. It was Mrs. Watson who kept us from pulling each other's hair out and taught us to work as a team.

We also owe thanks to the three principals who gave us their permission and support in doing many of the things that we wanted to do. We would like to let Jackie Calbert and Tim Ludwig know just how much we appreicate their cooperation and patience. Of course, we can't forget you people who showed up for the pictures no matter how many times they had to be retaken. Without you, much of what we have accomplished would not have been possible.

But the biggest thanks of all must go to the Growler staff. The staff put up with us through the good and the bad moments without complaining, not too much anyway.

At least to us, the year of 1982-83 has been very special. We hope it was for you too, and if it was, we hope that in the years to come you will be able to relive all of the moments we have tried to capture within the pages of this book.

Sincerely,

Colleen Robison
